Dear Under Secretary Cohen:

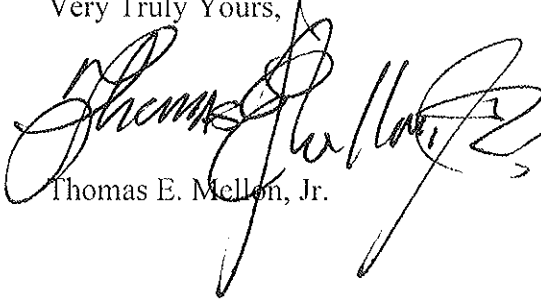

We serve as lead counsel for a consortium of law firms prosecuting the Havlish v. bin Laden action in the multi-district litigation arising out of the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, that is situated the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York. On July 30, 2012, U.S. Magistrate Judge Frank Maas issued a Report and Recommendation, recommending that the Plaintiffs in the Havlish action be collectively awarded damages in the amount of $6,048,513,805 against the Islamic Republic of Iran, its agencies and instrumentalities, and certain non-sovereign Defendants. A copy of this Report and Recommendation, as well as a list of Defendants in this action, is enclosed.

On October 3, 2012, the Honorable George B. Daniels issued a Memorandum Decision and Order adopting the Report and Recommendation of Judge Maas in its entirety. The Memorandum Decision was followed by the entry of an additional Order regarding damages docketed on October 16, 2012. Copies of the Memorandum Decision and Order of October 3, 2012, and Order of October 16, 2012, are enclosed.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1610(f)(2)(A), we hereby request via this correspondence the full and prompt assistance of the U.S. Department of the Treasury in identifying, locating, and executing upon any property of Iran, its agencies and instrumentalities, or of any other Havlish Defendant.

We eagerly await your reply regarding the location of any assets of Iran, or any other Defendant in the Havlish action, known to the U.S. Department of Treasury. Do not hesitate to contact us with any comments or questions.
